

Unpopular opinions on... Halloween!

The holiday promotes overconsumption and environmental waste.

Modern Halloween costumes show more about trends than creativity or tradition.

Adults have taken over Halloween – it's no longer for children.

People enjoy being scared because they're bored with everyday life.

Trick-or-treating should be banned for safety.

Halloween has turned into a social media competition rather than a real celebration.

Do you partly agree or completely disagree? Why? How has Halloween changed over time? For better or worse?
